

Olga Veligurska

Olga Veligurska is CEEMAN Coordinator and Head of Projects. She has joined CEEMAN – Central and East European Management Development Association in February 2004, being in charge of coordinating all association's activities, including program and event management, membership management, publishing, marketing, and other. Before that, she worked as a Project Manager at Baltic Management Conferences Ltd in Riga, Latvia and was engaged in internship projects during summer breaks and several research projects during her studies.

Olga has BSc in Economics and Business Administration from Stockholm School of Economics in Riga and is currently attending Executive MBA program at the IEDC-Bled School of Management.